The Scat Daddy filly (#1) ETHYL ETHER gets the one-hole, is the controlling speed in a race with a dearth of front-running types, and is 15-1 on the morning line—attributes which cause me to prick my ears. It doesn't hurt that she gets the services of veteran reinsman Perry Ouzts, who has nearly 6,900 wins to his credit (9th all time) and is at his best on front-running types carving out splits. Her sire's get can run on anything, and she beat a decent field by open lengths on Turfway's Polytrack back on March 17 in her two-turn debut. She can steal this on the front-end at a square price. Great win and place play; use (#4) YOU CHEATED, (#6) LAST PROMISE KEPT, and (#8) ESQUISSE (GB) in the exotics. —JG
