The Shadwell Farm homebred (#5) TALBEYA looks solid in Saturday's seventh, a maiden allowance event for two-year-old fillies sprinting five and one half-furlongs on the turf. This chestnut daughter of City Zip set a blistering pace (:22 flat, :44 4/5) from the 12-hole in her career debut back on August 4 and hung around to finish third, beaten 3 3/4-lengths for all the money. She has tons of upside making just her second career start and has a useful half-mile breeze under her belt since her first race for trainer Danny Peitz, whose outfit has had a great meet winning races at a 42% clip. I'll pass on the exotics and play (#5) TALBEYA straight—to win—at odds of 2-1 or greater. —JG
